Loss or Damage to Equipment or Clothing

At Harry Anthony Hair your safety during your visit is very important to us.

We update our risk assessment at regular intervals.

We do provide free of charge refreshments during a colour application, we also when requested are happy to borrow you a phone charger we don't accept any responsibility to damage to phone or other devices that are plugged into the sockets at Harry Anthony Hair.

We hang up all coats in the cloak room. Our gowning up process is there to protect your clothes this has been changed and developed over many years. Colour and water are occasionally spilt, we do try and protect your clothing as best we can but again we will not accept responsibility to any loss or damage to clothes whilst you are on site at Harry Anthony Hair. It is advisable not to wear clothes that are sentimental or expensive.
